

Joyce Miller Hart

Design Consultant
ASID Allied

Bachelor of Fine Arts - Interior Design
Ringling College of Art & Design, Sarasota, FL
Studied Design in England, France and Mexico

Designer Profile: Joyce is a multi-talented designer. Her years of experience prove that she is more than capable of taking on her clients' project and carrying it through from start to finish, whether it be a new residence or a remodel. Her easy-going manner and sensible approach to design assure that she has many repeat clients that are thrilled with their new space. She is very civic-minded and involved in her community, having served on the Board for ASID

1999-2001. Her fundraising projects include: Ringling Museum, Ringling School of Art & Design, University of South Florida at New College/Debutante Committee, Florida West Coast Symphony, Boys & Girls Clubs of Sarasota and Manatee Counties and she currently serves on the City of Sarasota Historic Preservation Board.

Awards: Numerous Showhouse awards

Design Projects include: Residences in Boca Grande, Sable Cove, Laurel Oak, Bird Key, Siesta Key, Sanctuary, Grand Bay, The Oaks, St. Armands, Venice Golf & Country Club

Published in: Sarasota Magazine, Sarasota Herald Tribune, Windows & Walls, Florida Design Quarterly

Models include: Alinari - four models

J Hart Interior Design
3909 Bee Ridge Road
Sarasota, FL 34233
(941) 923-0519 Office
(941) 376-9438 Cell
joyce@jhartinteriordesign.com